New Republican Precinct Chairman Named for 17th Congressional District

Bob K. King, has been appointed precinct chairman of the 17th Congressional District Republican Organization, Chairman Charles Soderstrom of San Pedro announced today.

King, of 16107 Ardat Ave., Gardena, moves up to the important post from the same responsibility in the 57th Assembly District Organization and succeeds Doug Cooke of Westchester, who resigned recently to head up the 46th District United Republican Fund Campaign.

The 36 year-old Iowa native has been active in Republican politics since 1954, mainly in the precinct organization. He recently served on a special planning committee which charted a two year action program for 17th District Republicans.

In announcing his appointment, Soderstrom praised King as "a dedicated Republican."

IMPORTANT THINGS

Many important things can never be weighed by scales, bought, sold, or even priced—a child's smile of thanks, hope for a better tomorrow, memories of a happy childhood, vision to plan a lifetime, trust and confidence of others, a handclasp in time of trouble.
